

Analyzing the physics of arrows

After seeing the world championships in athletics, we became interested in the movement of javelins. Therefore we examined the motion of arrows. First, we examined the relationship between the angle of release and distance. Next, we measured the height and velocity. Now, we are examining the relationship between the position of the arrow's gravity and distance.