

What makes a voice memorable ?

We predicted that memorable voices show high audio frequency levels. To test our theory we researched the voices of our teachers. But the results of our research showed irregularities. Therefore, we altered our research to test how the way of speaking contributes to a memorable voice.